Launchpad Group with Julie Mariouw

Launchpad groups are designed to help AWA affiliates get their dreams off the ground! Whatever your writing- or workshop-related goal—to lead your first workshop, to expand your offerings, to get a book published—this series will help you make progress.

This group will be led by Julie Mariouw of Wellspring Writing Workshops.

Julie Mariouw was certified as an AWA workshop leader in 2016, and since then has led workshops in Ann Arbor, MI, through Wellspring Writing Workshops. Since March 2020 Julie has offered writing workshops online.

Julie is fascinated by the healing power of creative writing and the role of the physical body in writing. She uses metaphor, the senses and physical movement in her workshops. Currently she is working on a novel, and has had many articles published on the writing process.
