

New Weekly Drop-In Writing Sessions Chelsea, MI

Chelsea, MI

We will meet weekly, on Sundays, from 11am-2pm, in Chelsea, beginning April 7, 2024. Just email me to request that I add your name to the drop-in list. Sessions will be on a drop-in/pay-per-session basis--$20. We will write together silently for 1.5 hours, then open up for sharing and/or discussion.

If weather permits, and writers are so-moved, we will also walk across the wetlands boardwalk, spend time in the forest, absorbing nature, then return and write.

Writing Prompts

I will provide writing prompts for each session. Writers can use these if they wish, or work on their own individual projects. After we have written for 1.5 hours, writers can choose to read their work out loud, ask for feedback, or we can simply discuss the joys of writing!

Once you are on the list, you do not need to sign up in advance, but please let me know the Friday before, so I know to expect you.
