

POET TREE TOWN

ANN ARBOR | APRIL 2023

Dissecting Poetry at Night

to find a reason to keep breathing

a reason to remember the fragrance of clean laundry dried in the sunlight

there it is
that is the reason
breathe today

this moment become stored in the trunk with its metal clasps until someone
drags
it
scraping
across the concrete
to find the smell of night
